This song is from the Indian telenovela, Sasirekha Parinayam, which airs in the states on Zee Telugu and Colors TV. The series is very popular with South Indians in America and abroad. As a result of this popularity, it has been dubbed in Hindi and aired on Zee TV India under the title Ekk Nayi Pehchaan. The show is also dubbed in Tamil on the channel Jaya TV. In 2014, "Om Namah Sivaya" was used as a theme song for one of the channels in Nigeria, Channel O. The song was previously used by the Indian film director Mahesh Bhojwala for his 1996 Hindi film Sasirekha Parinayam and by Shalini Shankar for her 1994 Hindi film Sameer: A Love Story. The lyrics of the song praise the god Siva, who is believed to be an incarnation of Vishnu. Vishnu is one of the three main gods in Hinduism, and he is believed to hold two important roles; one is holding up the world and keeping it from falling apart by his single toe (in Hinduism, this concept of god holding up the entire world on his toe is called "Padmasana", which literally means lotus seat), and the other is guarding Vaikuntha, where all good people go after they die so that they can live in peace without any fear or worries. This song describes how Siva lives in a mountain with his wife Parvati for eternity. There are several other gods in Hinduism, but only the three most important ones. Each of them is believed to have a role in keeping the universe going and functioning properly. The lyrics of this song praise the beauty of Sasirekha, a character from the telenovela, who has a lot of suitors for marriage. She is a beautiful girl from an impoverished background who wants to get married into a wealthy family so that she can move up in socioeconomic status. You can find more information on her background here: . The song was notably sung by K J Yesudas on 3rd January 2013.

"Sasirekha Parinayam Chinnanayakam" is composed by Shyam, while the lyrics are penned by Gana Bommagowda and Eswar Manickavasagar. The song is sung in the voice of Vijay Yesudas.
